- 24 likelihood that a person has made a bad-faith assertion of
- 25 patent infringement in violation of this chapter, the court
- 26 shall require the person to post a bond in an amount equal
- 27 to a good-faith estimate of the alleged infringer's costs
- 28 to litigate the claim and amounts reasonably likely to be
- 29 recovered under section 714I.4, conditioned upon payment of any
- 30 amounts finally determined to be due to the alleged infringer.
- 31 A hearing regarding the posting of such bond shall be held if
- 32 either party so requests. A bond ordered pursuant to this
- 33 section shall not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars.
- 34 The court may waive the bond requirement if it finds the person

1 or for other good cause shown.

- 2 Sec. 4. NEW SECTION. 714I.4 Enforcement and remedies.
- 3 1. A violation of this chapter is an unlawful practice
- 4 pursuant to section 714.16, and all the remedies under section
- 5 714.16 are available for such an action. This chapter shall
- 6 not be construed to limit rights and remedies available to the
- 7 state or to any person under any other law and shall not be
- 8 construed to in any way limit the authority of the attorney
- 9 general under section 714.16 with regard to conduct involving
- 10 assertions of patent infringement.
- 11 2. A person who is the target of conduct involving an
- 12 assertion of patent infringement, or a person aggrieved by a
- 13 violation of this chapter, may bring an action in district
- 14 court. A court may award any of the following remedies to a
- 15 plaintiff who prevails in an action brought pursuant to this
- 16 subsection:
- 17 a. Equitable relief.
- 18 b. Damages.
- 19 c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees.
- 20 d. Exemplary damages in an amount equal to fifty thousand
- 21 dollars or three times the total amount of damages, costs, and
- 22 fees, whichever is greater.
- 23 EXPLANATION
- 24 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with
- 25 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.
- 26 This bill creates a private right of action for bad-faith
- 27 assertions of patent infringement. The bill prohibits a person
- 28 from making a bad-faith assertion of patent infringement, and
- 29 provides lists of factors that a court may consider as evidence
- 30 that a person's assertion of patent infringement was either
- 31 made or not made in bad faith. The bill further provides
- 32 that a violation of the Code chapter is an unlawful practice
- 33 under Code section 714.16, and that the attorney general's
- 34 rights and remedies under Code section 714.16 are not in any
- 35 way limited by the creation of the private right of action.

- 1 Under Code section 714.16, with regard to unlawful practices,
- 2 the attorney general has the authority to issue subpoenas,
- 3 hold hearings, adopt administrative rules, and file lawsuits
- 4 to obtain temporary and permanent injunctive relief, consumer
- 5 reimbursement, costs and attorney fees, and civil penalties up
- 6 to $40,000 per violation.
- 7 A person against whom an allegation of patent infringement
- 8 has been made, who has received a demand letter asserting that
- 9 the person has engaged in patent infringement, against whom
- 10 a lawsuit alleging patent infringement has been filed or who
- 11 has been threatened by such a lawsuit, or whose customers have
- 12 received a demand letter asserting that the person has engaged
- 13 in patent infringement, may bring an action in district court
- 14 alleging that the assertion was made in bad faith. During the
- 15 proceeding, the court may order the person who alleged patent
- 16 infringement to post a bond upon a finding by the court that
- 17 there is a reasonable likelihood that the patent infringement
- 18 claim was made in bad faith. If the court finds that the
- 19 assertion of patent infringement was made in bad faith, the
- 20 court may award equitable relief, damages, costs and fees,
- 21 including reasonable attorney fees, or exemplary damages.
- 22 Exemplary damages are the greater of $50,000 or three times the
- 23 total of damages, costs, and fees.
